The text on the left page is a series of handwritten notes in a cursive script, likely a form of shorthand or a specific dialect. It begins with the word 'regenerat' and 'Arbore' written twice. The notes are organized into several lines, with some words underlined. A small asterisk is visible in the middle of the text.

The text on the right page continues the handwritten notes in the same cursive script. It contains several lines of text, some of which are underlined. The handwriting is consistent with the left page.
